16. Printing Services

25X1 a. Considerable support continues to be provided to activities, necessitating night shift.

b. The project of color badging of Agency personnel prior to the move to the new Headquarters building is nearing completion. Contact has been initiated by members of the White House Staff seeking support in a similar color badging project of all White House employees. It has been determined that the required support could be furnished and further action awaits word from the White House Staff.

17. Logistics Planning

a. The Office of Logistics was able to support cold war contingency operations because of its programmed procurement, rehabilitation, and packaging of paramilitary materiel.

c. The Agency increased from 44 to 49 the number of Agency-peculiar items offered to the Army for post-D-Day use. Negotiations are under way to cut reaction time for release of these items in an emergency.
